

Optional Excursions for Melodies of the Danube

AUSTRIA

Guided Tour of Schönbrunn Palace

Cost: $82.35 pp USD. Available From the Ship

The Palace of Schönbrunn is a fine example of Baroque architecture. Built originally as the summer residence of the Hapsburg Emperors, it became one of their favored homes. Your tour will include a guided tour of the Imperial apartments, the living quarters of the Emperors, still complete with their furnishings, and the Carriage Museum which houses the imperial coach used for coronations. Daytime optional.

Mozart & Strauss Concert in Vienna

Cost: $103.53 pp USD. Available From the Ship

As the "Music Capital of the World," everyone should attend a concert in Vienna at some point in their life. This excursion is an after dinner tour, from the ship in Vienna. The concert will be held in one of the truly great formal concert houses of Imperial Vienna, such as the Hofburg Palace or Palais Auersperg. This unforgettable evening will be a mixture of both Mozart & Strauss; featuring the most popular compositions of each. Following the concert, there will be a scenic drive of the Ringstrasse and its illuminated buildings, before returning to the ship. Evening optional.

CZECH REPUBLIC

Half-day excursion to Terezin (from Prague)

Cost: $80.00 pp USD. Available with the Prague Extension

During WWII, the Gestapo used Terezin, (better known by the German name Theresienstadt), as a ghetto, concentrating Jews from Czechoslovakia, as well as many from Germany, Austria, the Netherlands, and Denmark. German propaganda convinced international organizations that the camp was simply a "beautification project." The camp became so famous a movie was made about it. A visit to Terezin is a "must see" for many of our guests, guaranteed to be a profoundly moving experience. Morning optional, offered on the free day in Prague.

Folklore Dinner Show

Cost: $97.65 pp USD. Available with the Prague Extension

This unforgettable evening will get you in touch with the Czech soul. Savor hearty Czech specialties, regional wine and beer as you learn about traditional Czech music and dance during an interactive folklore show. Evening Optional.
